Bottle Tree Productions

Drama School Registration Form

We run three sessions of classes per year. Each session is normally 10 weeks, depending upon holidays. Rarely, we will offer a nine week or an eleven week course. The cost does not change for longer or shorter courses.

Your registration and fee holds a spot in the class at the times scheduled. We do not guarantee that you will be able to make up missed classes, although we will make an effort to include your child in a class if it is appropriate. Your payment is non-refundable after the second class scheduled. We reserve the right to cancel courses if there is low enrolment. If a course is cancelled, we will refund your fee, or reassign your child to another class, if that is acceptable to you.

At the end of each session, there will be an informal performance/review to which friends and family are welcome and expected! There is no cost to attend this performance, which is by word-of-mouth invitation.

We offer conservatory-style classes, geared to performance. Each young actor works at his/her own speed and comfort level. Our aim is to build confident, thinking actors, who know their craft, and can function well in the theatre environment, and elsewhere. This takes time, like music or dance lessons, and theatre students who do well will take classes for years, as well as performing in local shows.

**Attendance at drama class does not guarantee your child a role in any of the main plays or musicals that we produce. It does allow us to get to know your child, and understand their work habits and ability, so that if they audition, they may get the nod over someone who we do not know. Our regular productions are by audition or invitation. Not everyone who auditions gets roles. Some plays and musicals are closed to outside auditions. If there are questions about how casting works, you should ask us directly. Hard feelings are usually caused by bad information.*

Stage Right – April 10, 2010 to June 19, 2010
